Series 1—Beginning

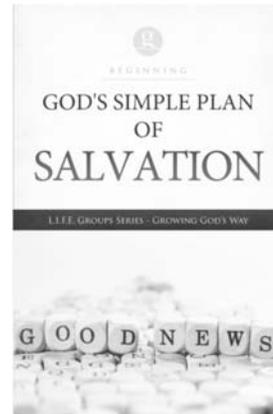

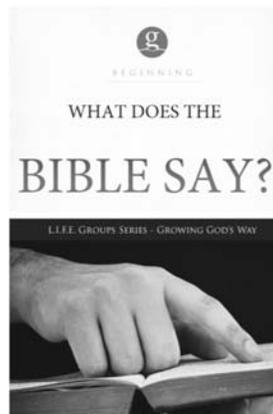

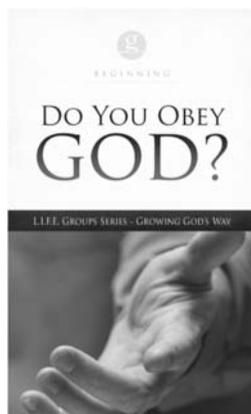

Christianity is about knowing the God of the Bible in a personal way. In this study, you will discover the thrills, challenges, and path to knowing God personally. We will examine the foundational principles from God's Word that teach how humanity can find a relationship with God. Pursue a relationship rather than a man made religious system.

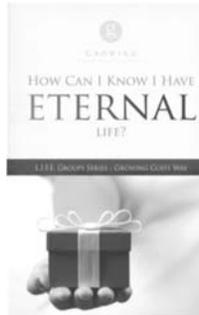

Have you ever asked why bad things happen? Why is evil in the world? Does the Bible contradict Science? Does the Bible contain errors? Is Christianity intolerant? In this study we will look at Biblical answers to these questions and other like them.

Eternal life is given to all who believe in Jesus. One book of the Bible was written to help you gain a certainty that you possess eternal life. This study teaches assurance of Salvation, primarily through a topical study of I John.

Since the Bible is God's Word, knowing its content is essential in order to understand Who God is. But the Bible is a big book, and knowing where to start can be daunting. In this study we survey the entire Bible and summarize its message in one sentence.

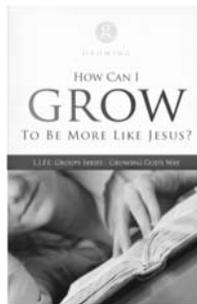

Developing a daily devotional time is one of the primary means that God uses to bring you closer to Him and make you more like His Son. These six practical lessons will guide you through a simple plan for setting up a daily devotional time with God.

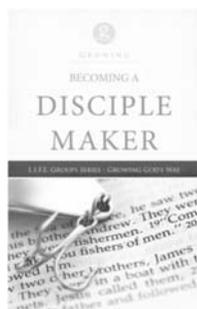

In this study you will learn the importance and significance of the two ordinances of the church—Baptism and the Lord's Table. These were two “orders” that Jesus gave to us before His ascension. They are vital to you as an individual growing in the body of a local church.

What does God want in a local church? We are not left to popular speculation for an answer to that question. In Scripture, God has given core principles to guide churches. This study highlights eight biblical themes that a church should keep prominent.

When Jesus walked the earth, God the Father spoke from heaven, “This is my beloved Son, in Him I am well pleased.” Living for God’s glory, His pleasure, is the greatest purpose for our existence. In this study we will examine how to grow to be more like God’s Son, Jesus. This is an introduction to the doctrine of progressive sanctification.

We can get a mistaken notion that reaching others for Christ is only the job of missionaries or church leaders. That is not true. In the Great Commission, Jesus commands all of us—“Make disciples of all nations.” In this study we will consider what discipleship is and how you can play a part in encouraging others to follow Jesus.
